SFX LIFELINE : WITH THIS LIGHT

Movie Screening

18 Nov, 4.00 pm, Bellarmine Hall

“WITH THIS LIGHT” is the story of Sister Maria Rosa Leggol, who for over 70 years helped over 87,000 Honduran children escape poverty and fortified her legacy as an activist and visionary. Her work continues with Maria and Rosa, two teens in her programs fighting to create their own lives.

The movie screening is open to all.

No registration is required. Please contact

Kenneth Ong (018-2053219) or Vanessa (016-2125101)

Formation brought to you by PRH Malaysia in collaboration with SFX

Decision Making In My Everyday Life

When making decisions?...

- "I am too hasty when making decisions"
- "I tend to feel uncomfortable after I take decisions"
- "I sometimes find it hard to decide"
- "I take time to make a decision"
- "I have to please or can't please everyone when I make a decision"
- "I am not sure how to make a decision"
- "I just follow others' decision"
- "I need to learn to make better decisions!"

Objectives of the Workshop

- This module looks at how we make decisions in our daily life.
- To look at my present method of decision making in my daily life in order to determine what is working well.
 - To examine what influences my ordinary decisions today and why.
 - To learn a method of decision making that takes into account my whole person.
 - To grasp well the impact of my decisions on my growth.

Personality and Human Relations (known as "PRH" from the French Personnalité et Relations Humaines) uses a humanistic psycho-pedagogy approach that aims to develop the human person and relationships according to each person's potentials. PRH started in France since 1970, present in over 35 countries in the world, is now available in Malaysia. The approach used, aims to help each person grow in self-awareness and autonomy, so that they can be more able to face the challenges in life, enhance their quality of life, self actualise and relate better personally and professionally.
